

BRADSHAW, GORDON & CLINKSCALES, LLC
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

James Starks Partner

As one of the newer partners of the BG&C firm, James is in charge of the audit department and its day to day functions. He has over ten years of accounting experience and is able to put that to use while managing his department.

James relocated to Greenville from Atlanta in the fall of 2014 with a B.B.A. double major in Accounting and Finance, graduating Magna Cum Laude from Georgia State University. After school, James officially became a Certified Public Accountant.

James lived in the Aiken/Augusta area as a child, but spent his teen and adult years in Atlanta until he was hired by BG&C. James is married with 4 sons, and enjoys spending time with his family, cheering on UGA football, and playing pickup basketball. In fact, staying in shape is one of his main hobbies, and he hopes to one day complete an Ironman distance Triathlon. One of James' favorite things about living in Greenville is not enduring Atlanta traffic anymore.
